

Calling All Readers:

Come Read to a Dog!

At Tolland Public Library

This December on:

Saturday, Dec.5th, 1:30 – 3 p.m.

With R.E.A.D. dog Dolly

(pictured above)

And on Thursday, Dec. 17th, 5:30 - 7 p.m.

With R.E.A.D. dog Vinny

Dolly and Vinnie, with their handlers Julie and Michelle, will be at the library on these dates to provide a chance for children in grades K and up to read aloud to improve their reading skills. R.E.A.D. dogs are registered therapy animals who, with their handlers, volunteer in schools and libraries as reading companions for children. Children may sign up for a 15-minute block of time with the dog.

Location: Library Young Adult Reading Area
