TOLLAND PUBLIC LIBRARY

Invites young writers to participate in

YOUNG AUTHORS' NIGHT

ON THURSDAY, MAY 18TH, 6:00—7:30 P.M., 2017

Open to students in grades 3 to 8 who have written original poems or short prose pieces they would like to read aloud.

To participate, students may let their teacher or school librarian know they would like to read aloud or they may sign up directly at the library.

This is a fun event celebrating Tolland's talented young writers (and of course, teachers are welcome to attend too!). Many thanks to all the dedicated teachers who make this program possible!
