

THE OPIOID EPIDEMIC

Our Communities, Our Concern

Wednesday, February 8, 2017

Tolland High School, Auditorium 1 Eagle Hill, Tolland

5:30 PM doors open for resource fair

6:30 PM featured speaker address begins

FEATURED SPEAKER

Greg Williams

national recovery leader and director of award-winning film The Anonymous People and recently released film Generation Found

PANELISTS

Jennifer Kelly

founder of Justice's Fight

Carrie B. Pichie, Ph.D.

Director of Ambulatory Programs, East Region, Hartford Healthcare

Chief Mark Palmer

Coventry Police Department

Rod Wilson

President of RAD Computing and person in recovery

Patricia Schneider, LCSW

Mansfield Director of Human Services

MODERATOR

Len Besthoff

NBC Connecticut News

RESOURCE FAIR

- Narcotics Anonymous
- East of the River Action for Substance Abuse Elimination (ERASE)
- Northeast Communities Against Substance Abuse (NECASA)
- Community Health Resources (CHR)
- Cultivating Change Counseling Services
- Natchaug Hospital
- Willington Local Prevention Council
- Eastern Highlands Health District
- Today I Matter
- Justice's Fight
- Perception Programs Inc
sponsoring Narcan demonstration and training
- Sharing Without Shame
- Drug Take-Back Station
supported by Connecticut State Police, Troop C
- Barnes and Noble book resource sale
- Tolland Public Library book display
- Drug and paraphernalia display
sponsored by the DEA
- UConn Recovery Community

Open to all!

for more info or to reserve childcare, call 860.429.3325

snow date set for February 28
check ehhd.org for changes

HOSTED BY

EHHD
Eastern Highlands Health District

WITH SUPPORT FROM ITS MEMBER TOWNS